

Global Development Insights — Education, Population & GDP Growth

Global filters

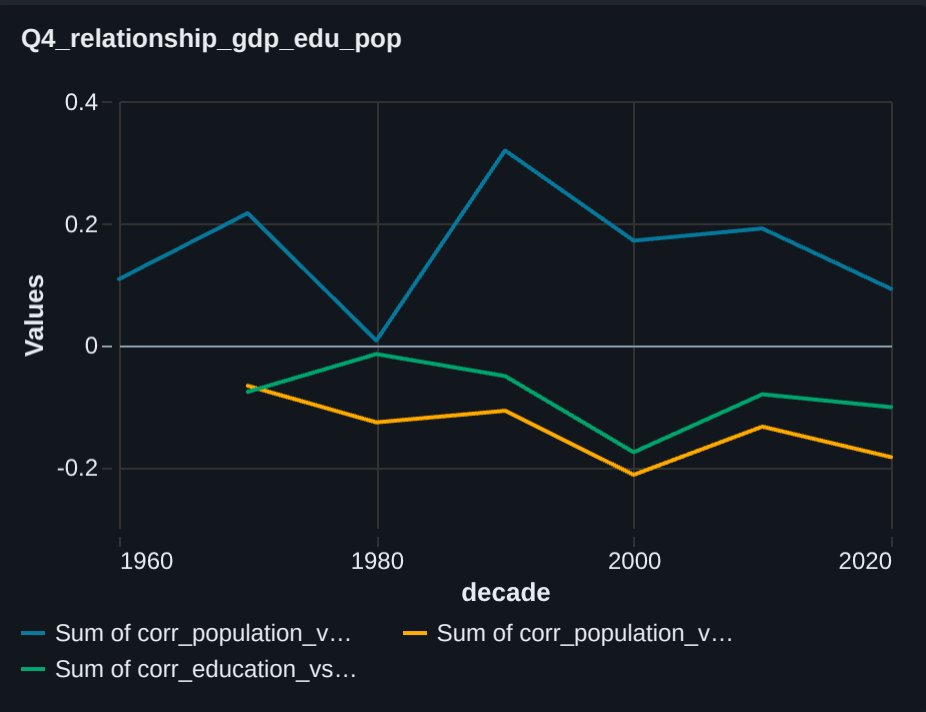

Education-GDP correlation restricted to 1990-2025, overall and by region

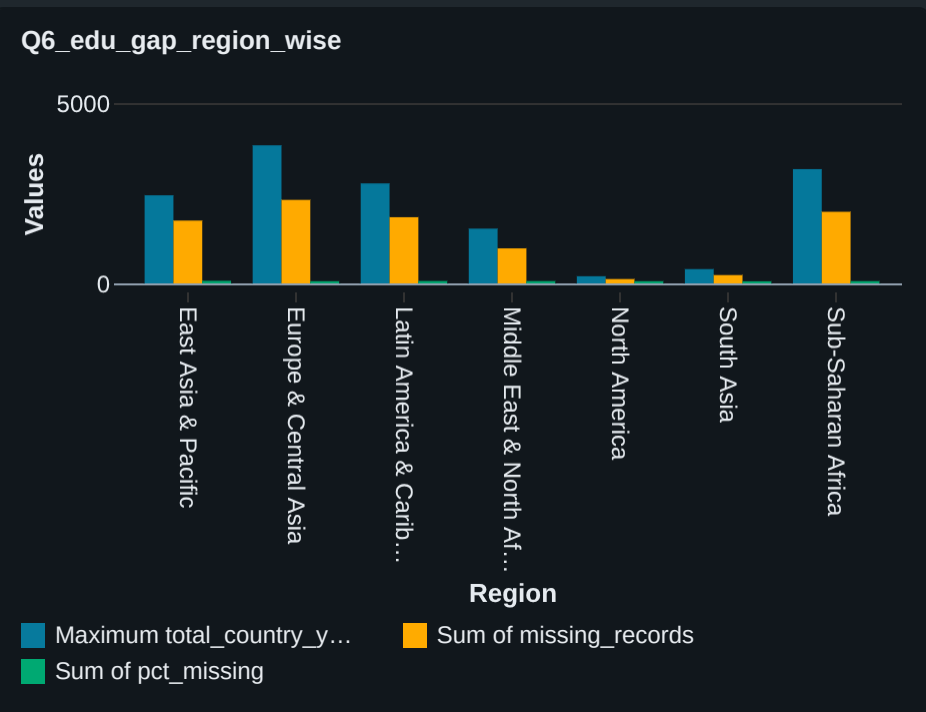

Decade-by-decade global trends — GDP growth, population growth, and education spending

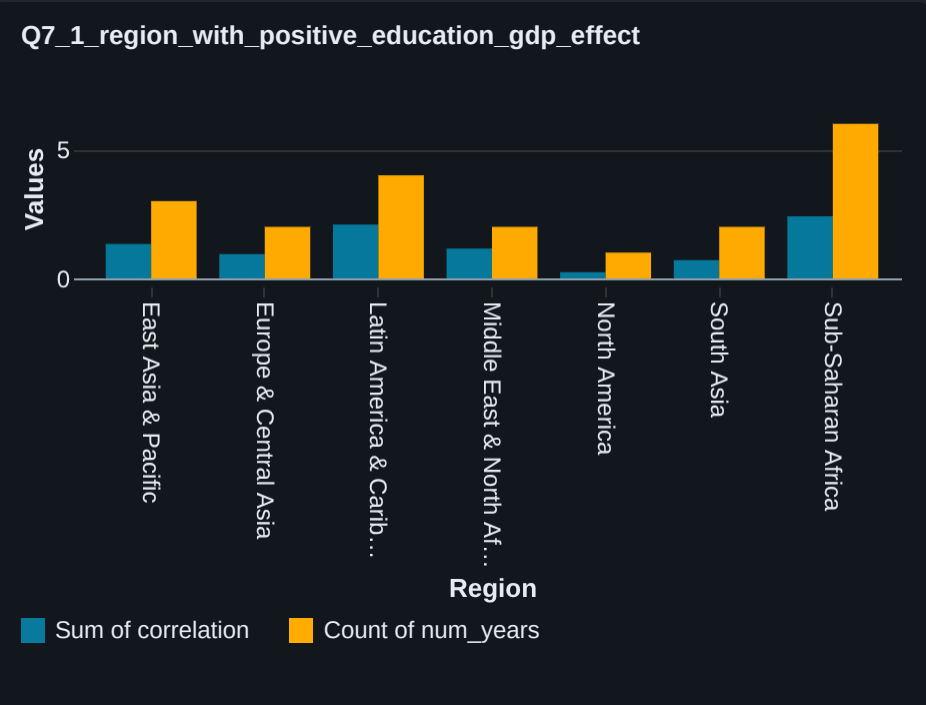

Relationship between all three metrics — population growth, education spending, and GDP growth

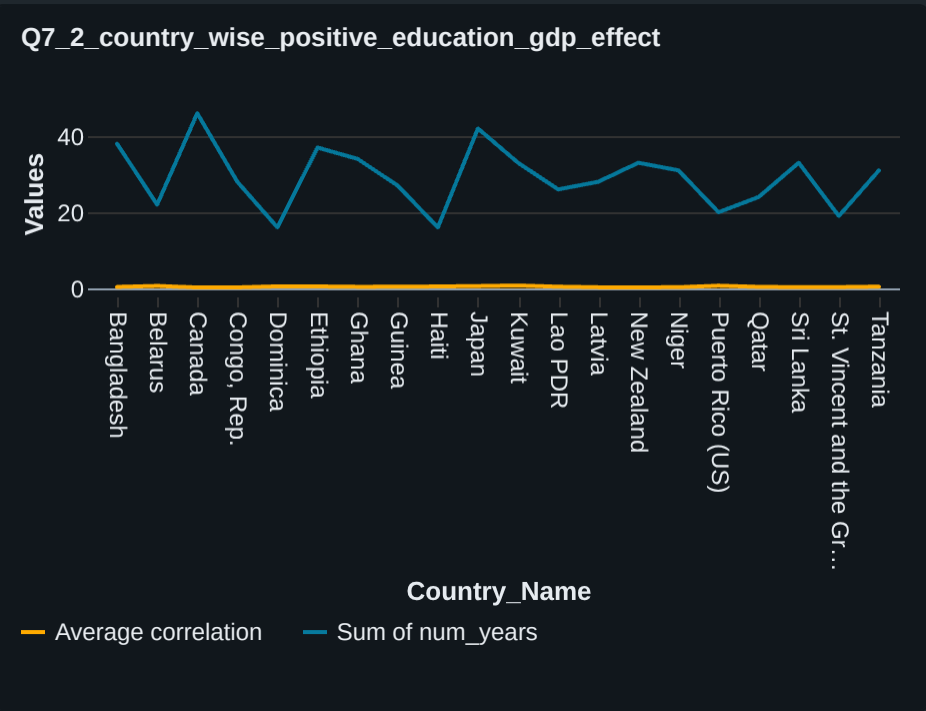

Region : Biggest gaps in education spending data

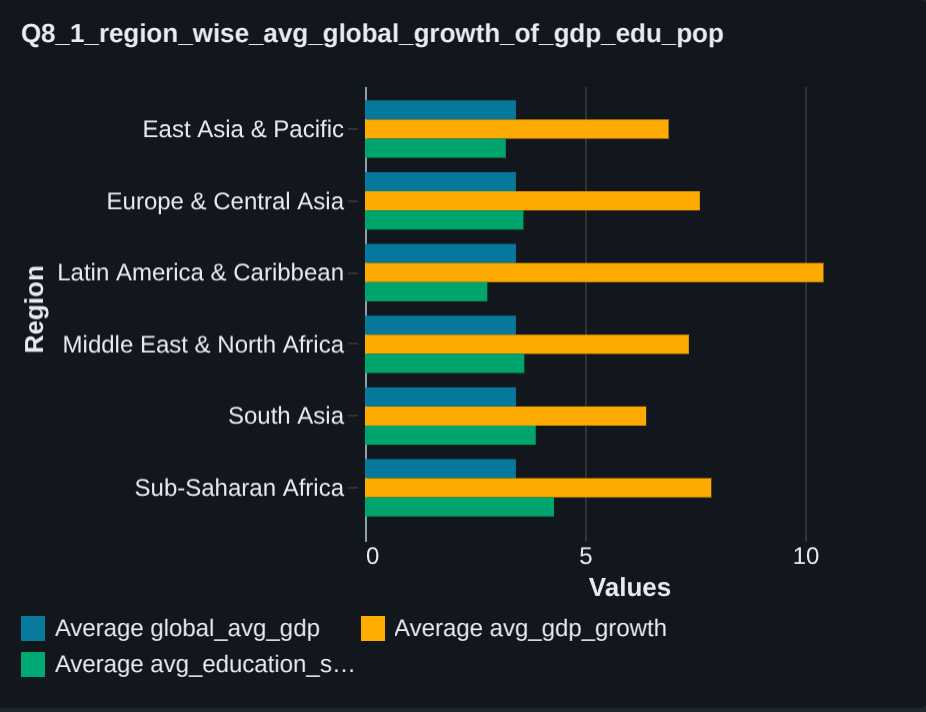

Region : Individual region show the strongest positive relationship between education spending and GDP growth

Country : Individual countries show the strongest positive relationship between education spending and GDP growth

Outliers by region: The biggest "outliers" — high GDP growth with low education investment, or high education investment with low GDP growth

Outliers by Country : The biggest "outliers" — high GDP growth with low education investment, or high education investment with low GDP growth

